Distinguished Alumni Award

Recognition is open to any living alumnus or alumna of The University of Tulsa, regardless of age, who has distinguished himself or herself by rendering extraordinary service and achievement to a particular discipline, organization or cause on an international, national, statewide or local basis. Basic qualities of good character and citizenship, as well as a demonstrated commitment of service to The University of Tulsa, shall also be considered. No current employee of TU, member of the Selection Committee, or current member of the National Board of the TU Alumni Association is eligible for the award. The recipient of the award must be present at the annual awards ceremony to accept the honor. The TU Alumni Association National Board accepts nominations for the Distinguished Alumni Award from alumni, friends, trustees, faculty, staff and students until December 31.
